

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 22, 2002

Contact:
Office of Historic Preservation
(916) 653-6624
or Roy Stearns
(916) 654-7538

State Historical Resources Commission to meet in Santa Rosa on Thursday, May 2

The California State Historical Resources Commission will meet in Santa Rosa on Thursday, May 2, beginning at 9 a.m. in the Flamingo Resort Hotel, Court Yard 1 Room, at 2777 Fourth Street.

The Commission will award resolutions of recognition to the Cities of Santa Ana and Campbell for achieving designation as Certified Local Governments. The Certified Local Government program is a commitment to ensure that historic properties will be treated with full consideration by the local government. A Certified Local Government must have adopted a preservation ordinance, established a preservation commission, and conducted a survey of resources in its jurisdiction.

Accepting the resolution for the City of Santa Ana will be RoseAnne Garcia Kings, Chairperson, City of Santa Ana Historic Resources Commission; and Maya De Rosa, Senior Planner, City of Santa Ana.

Accepting the resolution for the City of Campbell will be Jeanette Watson, Mayor, City of Campbell; and Sharon Fierro, Community Development Director, City of Campbell.

The Commission will consider the following sites for addition to the National Register of Historic Places:

- * Ziegler Estate, Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, Local Level of Significance
- * Forest Home Farms, San Ramon, Contra Costa County, Local Level of Significance
- * Mohnike Adobe Ranch, San Diego, San Diego County, Local Level of Significance

The Commission will consider the following sites for addition to the California Points of Historical Interest:

- * Martinez Railroad Station, Martinez, Contra Costa County
- * Fresno Flats Townsite, Oakhurst, Madera County

The Commission will also consider the following for addition to California Historical Landmarks:

- * Will S. Green House, Colusa, Colusa County

For more information, contact the Office of Historic Preservation, (916) 653-6624.